PERMANANT ADDRESS

Old Number 48; New Number 61

TEMPORARY ADDRESS IN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
56820 - 379 : C/O/Marion U.S.Penitentiary :
Marion, Illinois - 62959

Comes Now, Annamalai Annamalai, hereinafter "Complainant", filing this DEMAND to the Honorable Court to take Mandatory Judicial Notice of the entire MAXIMS and PRINCIPLES OF EQUITY, pursuant to Fed.R.Evid. 201(c)(2) and F.E.R. 401(c)(2), and he further respectfully shows the Court as follows.

This instant suit is being filed by the Complainant as a suit for "breach of Contract" and he has filed a Suit for Specific Performance of a Contract with the Chancellor of this Court. The Complainant respectfully demand the Chancellor of the Court to take mandatory Judicial Notice of MAXIMS and PRINCIPLES OF EQUITY, and the same could be well found from the book published by an author known as "Henry Richard Gibson" and particularly in his book, which was titled as "A TREATISE ON SUITS IN CHANCERY", a reprint done on 2013, and published by "ISHA BOOKS; B-69, New Gupta colony, New DDA Market, New Delhi -110009, India. The same book was first published in USA in the year 1907.

The Complainant has also given certain MAXIMS AND PRINCIPLES OF EQUITY, which are most related to this Suit, and he has derived those principles from the same Book published by the famous author Henry Richard Gibson, and they are as follows.

1. Whereas the Courts of Law as at present established, are not equal to the redress of all kinds of injuries, but many innocent men are withheld of their rights, and some deprived of them altogether, for want of a Court or Courts of Equity.

2. The equitable or inherent jurisdiction of the Chancery Court includes all cases of an Equitable nature, where the debt or demand exceeds fifty dollars. These cases include the following:

- (a). All Suits resulting from accidents and mistakes.
- (b). All Suits resulting from frauds, actual and constructive.
- (c). All Suits for Specific performance of Contracts.
- (d). All Suits for an accounting, and for surcharging and falsifying accounts.
- (e). All suits for enforcement of liens created by mortgages deeds of trust, sales of land on Credit, or other equitable considerations.
- (f). All suits for forfeiture and pelaties.
- (g). All suits to obtain set-off against a judgement
- (h). All suits to remove clouds and quiet titles.
- (i). All Suits for a New Trial after a judgement at law.
- (j). All Suits to prevent the doing of an illigal or inequitable act to the injury of Complainant's property rights, or interests, quia timet.

3. Thus, Equity will not suffer a wrong without a remedy, and Equity operates upon the person, was builded that grand structure of jurisprudence called Equity.

4. Equity Delights to do Complete Justice, and Not by Halves.

5. He who seeks equity must do equity.

6. Equity regards that as done which ought to be done.

7. Equity looks to the intent rather than to the form.

8. The Courts of Common Law respected forms and ceremonies, and would not look beneath a seal, nor behind a writing, nor beyond the verdict of a jury, nor allow a judgement to be questioned, fraud took advantage of these rules, and made forms, writings, seals, verdicts, and Judge -ments its instrumentalities and agencies in effecting its nefarious schemes for the undoing of the weak, the inexperienced, the trusting and the needy. However, Equity established her Courts, she disregarded forms, discredited ceremonies, peered beneath the seal, looked behind writings, questioned the verdicts of juries, and did not hesitate to set aside the solemn judgements of Courts, when found to be unjust and procured by fraud.

9. DEBITUM ET CONTRACTUS SUNT NULLIUS LOCI - Neither a debt nor a contract are local in nature. Suits to recover debts, and suits based on contracts, are called transitory actions, and may be brought wherever the debtor is found.

10. The law arises out of the transaction.

11. The express mention of one person or thing in a written instrument is equivalent to the express exclusion of all other persons or things.

12. JUDICIS EST JUDICARE SECUNDUM ALLEGATA ET PROBATA - It is the duty of a Judge to decide according to the allegations of the pleadings and the pertinent proof.

13. The MAXIMS have an inherent probative force, and need not to be proved.

14. He who CONSENTS to what is done cannot complain of it.(Volenti non fit injuria). No right of action accrues to a person who agreed to what was done, even though it injured him.

NOTICE, AND ITS EFFECTS : ACQUIESCEENCE , AND ITS EFFECTS

15. EFFECT OF BEING PUT ON INQUIRY: Whenever a party has information or knowledge of certain extraneous facts, which of themselves do not amount to, nor tend to show, an actual notice, but which are sufficient to put a reasonably prudent man upon inquiry respecting a conflicting interest, claim or right; and the circumstances are such that the inquiry, if made and followed up with reasonable care and diligence would lead to a discovery of the truth, to a knowledge of the interest, claim, or right which really exists; then the party is absolutely charged with a con charged with a constructive Notice of such interest, claim or right.

The Presumption of knowledge is then conclusive.

16. The Courts enforce the Maxim. "Equity aids the vigilant, not those who sleep upon their rights. The neglect to do a thing in proper season is called laches, and is one of the unpardonable sins in the sight of a Court of Equity.

17. WAIVER AND ITS EFFECTS: A litigation is a legal combat in which each party has the rights to take every lawful advantage of his adversary, and when a party fails or declines to exercise this right, in any given case, he is deemed to have waived it, for reasons satisfactory to himself.

18. The Court requires the adverse party to interpose his objection in due season; and if he fails so to do, he will be deemed to have waived his right to object.

19. The party who is deemed to have waived his right to object has no just cause to complain of this rule of the Court.

20. What a man consents to he cannot complain of, and this consent may be inferred from silence or from conduct.

21. The doctrine of Waiver promotes diligence, prevents trickery and bad faith, and preserves rights acquired in consequence of the waiver.

22. Indeed any party, who with knowledge of the grounds of objection to any act or proceeding in court by any other party, or by an officer or witness, fails in due season, to avail himself of such grounds of objection, and to have acquiesced therein, and is estopped by his conduct. So the Courts rule that a party who will not object when he should, shall not object when he would.

23. CONSENT AND ITS EFFECTS:- Consent is the concurrence of agreement of two or more persons as to any matter of fact or opinion.

24. However, one or more of the parties to an agreement should violate the agreement the other party could apply to the Courts, either to prevent any further violation, or for the damages resulting to him by reason of the Violation, or for a specific performance of the agreement.

25. Agreements control the law- MODUS AT CONVENTIO VINCUNT LEGIN.
Neither the Courts nor the legislature can set aside a valid agreement. They are protected by the CONSTITUTION of both the State and the United States.

26. Consent does away with any error in the agreement.

27. When a party agrees to in the course of a litigation is so binding upon him that he cannot appeal from it, or if an appeal should be granted, the Supreme Court will not hear him,

28. It is one of the boasts of the Chancery Courts that their doors are open to every person who has suffered a wrong cognizable in Equity.

29. The Court Cannot notice matter, however clearly proved, as to which there is no allegations or issues in the pleadings. A fact neither alleged in the bill nor stated in the answer is therefore, not in issue, and cannot be considered by the courts, although essential to complainant's success and fully proved. Courts cannot notice proff of matters not alleged.

30. Besides, the Court has no jurisdiction of any matter not contained in the Pleadings.

31. The value of anything is estimated according to its worth in money.

32. It is, indeed, a maxim that where parties CONSENT they bind the Court where they do not CONSENT, the Courts binds them.

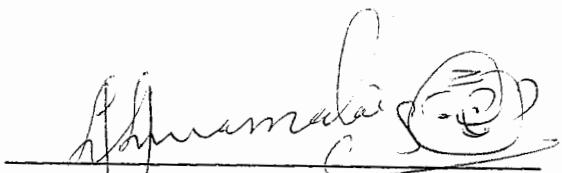

33. The Doctorine of Waiver operates somewhat as does the Doctrine of laches, or the statue of limitations, or an estoppel.

34. Frauds are viewed with great horror and indignation by Courts of Equity, as destructive of that honorable confidence necessary for human intercourse, and as constitutiong a sort of treason against society itself.

35. Equity Regards the beneficiary as the Real owner.

Wherefore, the Complainant, respectfully requests and demand that the Chancellor of the Court to take Judicial Notice of the entire MAXIMS AND PRINCIPLES OF EQUITY, including what was stated as above in the item numbers 1 through 35, which in fact were copied from the Maxims and principles of Equity.

Respectfully submitted on this day of 30, May, 2016.

Notice and Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT for the
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

To: The Honorable Chancellor:

Annamalai Annamalai,
Complainant/Petitioner,

v.

Vanaja Sekar, et al.
Defendants.

NOTICE AND CONSENT TO PROCEED BEFORE A MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Notice of a magistrate judge's availability. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a United States magistrate judge of this court is available to conduct all proceedings in this civil action (including a jury or nonjury trial) and to order the entry of a final judgment. The judgment may then be appealed directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit like any other judgment of this court. A magistrate judge may exercise this authority only if all parties voluntarily consent. You may consent to have your case referred to a magistrate judge, or you may withhold your consent without substantive adverse consequences.

Note: If this case is transferred on consent to a magistrate judge, major criminal cases will not interfere with its scheduling and progress. This means that it is likely this civil case will be resolved sooner and at less expense to the parties if a magistrate judge decides the case.

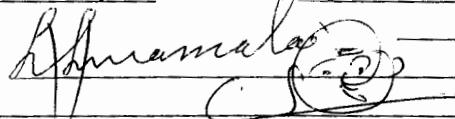

Consent to a magistrate judge's authority. The following parties consent to have a magistrate judge conduct all proceedings in this case including trial, entry of final judgment, and all post-trial proceedings. Acceptance is conditional, upon condition that all proceedings will be conducted pursuant to the doctrines and principles of Equity.

Illinois Department of Corrections institutions participating in the electronic filing program should transmit the form electronically for e-filing by the clerk.
